provisions of regulations related to depository participants. The development comes after stock exchanges, depositories, public financial institutions and PSBs had sought certain clarifications from Sebi.

According to Sebi, a person will not be considered depository participant or its associate, if the same is on the board of a public financial institution or PSB, or which has no identifiable ultimate promoter. A person who is a director in an entity, that itself is a depository participant or has associate as depository participant, then the same will be considered as a depository participant.
